

Inspector finds rodent droppings, closes golf course restaurant

March 16, 2017, USA

Golf and Tennis Club at Errol Estate found itself closed last week after a health inspector found rodent dropping in a storage area.

The golf club's bar and grill was closed for a day after the inspector noted dozens of instances of rodent droppings near the walk-in cooler, near flour and sugar bins and under a mixer stand.

Restaurant inspections are conducted by the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation.

A state inspection report noted 11 violations with one high-priority citation. It also received violations for not having hot water at an employee hand wash sink and basic violations for maintenance issues.

Apopka Golf and Tennis at Errol Estate was closed for a day before it was allowed to reopen during a follow-up inspection. It is located at 1355 Errol Parkway in Apopka.

Calls and emails to the Apopka Golf and Tennis Club at Errol Estate were not returned by the time of publication.

The country club has not been closed in recent history, but has required follow-up inspections during its last three rounds of visits from health inspectors.
