

Rat biting cases on rise in Peshawar

April 30, 2016, Peshawar, Pakistan

PESHAWAR - Cases of rate biting incidents in the provincial metropolis increased to 374 and 22 new cases were reported at Lady Reading Hospital (LRH) here on Saturday.

According to the LRH spokesman, 22 new cases of rats biting were registered and were vaccinated with anti-bite vaccines. He said that the management of the hospital has plenty of anti-rats biting vaccine in order to quickly treatment to the people coming to the hospital.

He said that most of the minors were among rat bites cases registered in the LRH. While giving detail about the overall rat bits cases 174 children, 128 male and 72 female were registered.