

Squirrel to blame for downtown power outage

By Windsor Star, 2nd February 2016, Canada

A critter who came into contact with a 16,000 volt line at a transformer north of Park Street and Caron Avenue is to blame for a power outage that lasted about an hour.

The outage lasted from 9:54 a.m. to 10:55 a.m. and affected 177 customers in the area bounded by University Avenue and Wyandotte Street and Janette Avenue and Caron.